

I AM AN ICNZB CERTIFIED BOOKKEEPER®

My professional membership with the Institute of Certified NZ Bookkeepers is important to you because it means:

- I have a Code of Ethical Conduct that I am obliged to adhere to.
- I hold Professional Indemnity insurance that protects us both in our business relationship.
- I am supported in my Continuous Professional Development with regular access to educational material and information.
- I have passed an assessment to confirm my bookkeeping skills and gain this membership.
- I have access to resources and templates to benefit my business and my clients.
- I am kept up to date on new software and service providers within the industry.
- I have National support from my bookkeeping peers.
- I am part of a global bookkeeping community.
- I take advantage of professional network opportunities, and have contact with relevant industry professionals through webinars, annual conferences, roadshows and the like.
- I am provided up to the minute updates from government agencies such as Inland Revenue, ACC, DIA and MBIE.
- If you have reasonable grounds to believe that I have breached the Code of Ethical Conduct, you are able to bring the matter to the notice of ICNZB.
